HOW TO BUY PERSONALISED WEDDING CANDLES:

STEP ONE:

Fill out the order form on the back of this catalogue or send us an email giving the following information:

- 1) Your name and address
- 2) The names/ date/ wording you want on the candles (Any extra words on the candle will be extra—we will get in touch if you want anything more than the names and the date)
- 3) Any changes you would like made to the design i.e. the colour or the font. We regret that we cannot offer gold or silver metallic lettering but will make every effort to get a colour as close as possible.
- 4) Send us the form to the above address with your payment details, or you can call us on 0207 736 0740, or email info@candlesontheweb.co.uk

STEP TWO:

Order a sample candle. We charge £10.00 for a sample of your requested candle for your approval. We can change the sample if the wording is incorrect - but basic designs cannot be altered without a further charge.

We regret that we cannot refund the £10.00 if you decide, for some reason, not to go ahead with the order.

We send our samples so that you can see where the printing is on the candle and for you to check the wording, font etc. The charge also covers the cost of producing any artwork etc for the candle.

Once you have approved the sample, either by phone or email, you will then be charged for the candles you have ordered. We cannot accept personalised candles unless they are faulty.

STEP THREE:

Order the candles in the design you have chosen. You will see that you can order in any quantity and that the price lowers per candle if you order over 30 candles. They will then be produced and sent out to you. Please allow up to 3 weeks for your order. If you have not received your order by this time, please call us and let us know.

HOW TO BUY ANY OTHER PERSONALISED CANDLES:

Email or phone us with information about what you would like on the candle i.e. photograph, special logo, poems etc. Prices may vary depending on the complexity of the graphic used. We will quote you, but use our price list at the back of the catalogue as a rough guide.

We will still have to send you a sample for a charge of £10.00, but we will only ask for payment of the full order once we establish what you want on the candles.

Please be aware that we cannot send samples for Unity Candles and one-off personalised candles. However we can send you a paper sample or email you an image of a candle to show you the layout, colours, fonts and graphics etc. Please specify when ordering in the special instructions section on the order form.

One off personalised candles and Unity candles are non returnable unless damaged.
